

Important Updates

As the global Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak continues to evolve, we want you to know that we will be doing our very best to ensure that we continue to maintain our service to you.

Naturally, our highest priority is the health and wellbeing of our employees, students, and industry partners, and we want to assure you that your studies will not be disadvantaged.

Online Courses

Our courses are running as usual.

We have extensive experience in developing and delivering online courses, and we are taking all the measures required to continue operating as usual even in the event to move towards a full work from home arrangements for all our staff.

Practical Requirements

Our courses are running as usual.

However, we will continue to monitor the situation closely and take advice from the Australian Department of Health.

We are also in close contact with our industry partners that assist you for your practical placement to ensure we are responding appropriately and updating you accordingly.

Consistent with current guidelines, if you are feeling unwell, you should stay at home and seek medical attention as soon as possible.

We suggest to check the Health Alerts if your symptoms include fever, coughing, sore throat, fatigue, and shortness of breath or you think you have COVID-19.

What you need to know

On 15 March, the Australian Government put in place new measures for people arriving in Australia:

- Individuals must self-isolate for a period of 14 days on arrival to Australia, including returning Australian citizens and residents.

You are also required to self-isolate if you:

- have been diagnosed with the Coronavirus (COVID-19)
- are under medical assessment for Coronavirus (COVID-19)
- has been in contact with any confirmed coronavirus (COVID-19) cases.

In case you meet these criteria, or you feel COVID-19 has impacted your ability to complete your course please contact us at info@foundationeducation.edu.au.

For More Information

COVID-19 information and updates are available via the Australian Government – Department of Health website.
